TAKE YOUR TROUBLES TO MINERVA

LIFE'S STRUGGLE

I know that there are days when you wonder if life is worth the struggle—Days when you believe that one more disappointment, one more blow, will be unbearable and that you won't be able to take it. But somehow we do take them—usually in spite of ourselves. I have found that if we are patient, and if we realize that there is an answer to all of our dark days—we learn that everything works out the way it is supposed to, and almost always for the best. It is hard to convince ourselves of that when we're in the midst of tribulation—but if you look back on some of the things that have happened in our life—episodes that had no meaning at the time, you will know that it is true.

And that is about all of my answer to the following letter.

Dear Minerva: I am writing to you for moral support if for no other reason. I have had one trouble after another these past two years until I have reached the place where I don't see how I can stand any more and still live. There have been death, illness, financial trouble — everything that could possibly happen. I am despondent and don't know which way to turn, and regardless of how I try to talk myself out of it, I am in the mood where I don't see much sense in trying to go on. What do you do when you reach that place? Or have you ever had that much trouble?—K. F.

A. I think there are few of us in this world who escape trouble, and it always does seem to come at once. It is a very strong person, indeed, who can shrug off a couple of years of worry of one variety or another, and personally I can't say I know anyone with that much strength.

IMMUNITY

But all things come to an end—even worry. Perhaps we eventually develop an immunity, or it may be that we turn the right corner at the right time, but anyway, it does have an end. What I want you to believe is that though you can't see it now, the day will come when you will discover that perhaps all of this trouble and worry has been leading up to something quite worth while. Tell yourself that over and over—and know that you are telling yourself the truth. Things will be easier to bear, then. Each of us must have faith in someone or something—and most of all, when it comes to personalities, we must have faith in ourselves—Thinking you are a failure, that you are beaten, won't help you a bit. Hold your head high, defy the world and trouble to get you down—and see if your mental perspective doesn't improve.

* * *

Dear Minerva: I have been pondering over a situation for quite some time. For one thing, is there an hour limit to jobs in this city? To get down to actual facts my son works in a local grocery store and puts in most of his waking hours and on Saturdays half the night as well. The retail department stores finally cut down to eight hours a day and no one apparently suffered. Why can't the grocery stores do the same thing. I believe if the public were willing to cooperate these men and boys could also have a little time off for much needed rest if nothing more.

I'm sure we're all fair minded enough to grant that. That should only be reasonable.—A MOTHER.

A. I suspect you are right about the hours, and that the public would be willing to cooperate if the grocery stores wanted things that way. However, just one grocer couldn't do it alone—they would all have to make the same rules and regulations or some grocers would be doing all of the business, and the others would be going out of business. You must remember, too, that there are many people who work all day Saturday, both the husband and the wife, and the only time they have to do their Sunday food shopping is Saturday evening. I realize that sometimes putting off your grocery shopping until the last moment gets to be a habit. But the public doesn't have anything to say about what the stores do — the stores make the rules and the public has to abide by them.

3 Ships Victims Of North Sea War

LONDON, May 8—(AP)—Three ships were added today to the list of victims in the sea and air warfare in the North sea.

The Norwegian high command said six persons were killed in the bombing and machine-gunning of the 316-ton Norwegian passenger steamer Folden.

The Swedish steamer Monark, 1,786 tons, in charge of a German prize crew, was reported from Stockholm to have been torpedoed by a British submarine.

A dispatch from Dunquerque, France, said the British collier Brighton, 5,359 tons, was sunk off that port following an explosion. All of the crew of 34 were saved though 10 were injured in the blast.

Hitler Believed Planning Invasion Of British Isles

. . . But He Will Meet Undreamed-Of Hatred and Defense

By MAJOR PAUL C. RABORG.
[Written Especially for International News Service.]

NEW YORK, May 8—(INS)—The totalitarians may attempt to make the Mediterranean sea a "rat trap" for the British and French navies.

From all appearances, Hitler and his supporters are, in their opinion, rapidly approaching the zero hour for the death blow.

It seems there are three possible battle grounds, the Mediterranean, the Netherlands, and the British isles. But only one of these is planned as the arena for the death of democracy in Europe.

There is little doubt that Hitler plans to blitzkrieg Scotland and England. Whether a general bombing would precede, or be simultaneous with an over-sea land invasion is anyone's guess. The fuehrer may feel he can now accomplish both from his present German, Danish and Norwegian bases. Or, he may think it necessary to establish new bases in the Netherlands before launching a land attack on London.

However, it is possible that the German high command believes that, instead of overrunning the Netherlands, he can bomb Scotland, reduce this country to ruins and immediately afterwards land an expeditionary force. Then using this point as a base, override the British Isles with mechanized equipment and airplanes as the nazis did Poland.

But Hitler will find different conditions. He will see a racial hatred and arousement undreamed of. The Britons and Scots love with intense devotion their peaceful countryside, farms, and beautiful tree-shaded roads. Remember, this country has not been touched by an invader's foot since 1066. Probably the inhabitants have not seriously considered a possible invasion until recently. The very effrontery will goad them to frenzy.

An attack on the British Isles would produce terrific results. London is perhaps the best prepared city in the world to resist air attack.

This would almost of necessity start the dreaded devastation of Europe from the air, because the instant English cities were bombed, retaliation raids would be started.

By then, if Italy was involved, she would not escape.

Mussolini, by "war of nerves" or actual participation, may draw as many allied fighting ships as possible into the Mediterranean, then close the gate, leaving them truly in a "rat trap" while Hitler strikes at London.

Bay State Forest Fire Controlled

BARNSTABLE, Mass., May 8—(AP)—More than 1,000 men brought under control early today a roaring forest fire which had raged over thousands of acres of woodland on Cape Cod, destroying farm buildings, scorching homes and threatening valuable summer property.

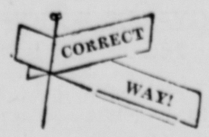

Inspector John M. Sullivan of the state fire marshal's office instituted an investigation of the possibility of incendiarism. Seven separate fires on the cape were brought under control swiftly Monday and suspicions of incendiarism were expressed at that time, also.

City Sending Tax Slips

Frank J. Miller, city treasurer, is sending out the first installment of more than 13,000 courtesy tax notices of personal tax dewere notices of personal tax delinquencies, and a like number went to real estate owners. The others were notices to the effect that if those who pay semi-annually do not remit by June 1, interest will be charged on the entire amount.

The personal tax delinquencies amount to approximately $30,000, for the current year, Miller said, and unless paid promptly distress warrants will be issued in conformity with the statutes, upon advice of the legal department. The same policy will be followed with reference to delinquencies for prior years.

WPA Project To Fix Basement at Jackson High Gets Approval

President Roosevelt Wednesday approved a WPA project to improve the basement of the home economics building at Jackson high school. The basement would be fixed for a shower and dressing room, which were destroyed when the Jackson gymnasium burned last winter.

The plumbing and heating system of the gym and equipment for the shower and dressing room were salvaged and it was planned to set up these facilities in the home economics building. The cost of the project would be $469.

There is some doubt at present, since the Northeast high proposition carried, as to whether the home economics building will be repaired. Plans for next year have not yet been fully worked out and acceptance of the WPA help is pending a decision on the matter.

Car Testing Legal, State Brief Argues

With written arguments to the Supreme court Wednesday, the attorney general championed the validity of the 1939 law which rpeealed compulsory automobile safety testing.

The briefs, submitted by Assistant Attorney General C. S. Beck, were in answer to arguments offered on behalf of five outstate garagemen who contend the law is unconstitutional on the ground it exceeds the bounds of police power by directing garages to test cars without charge when officers suspect the vehicles are unsafe.

Beck wrote: "The mere fact that section 6 (the one providing for free tests) will work some hardship upon appellants (the garage men) and others similarly situated...does not violate the consttiutional provision since practically no police regulation could be enacted by the state which would not in some manner injuriously affect some persons."

The case is now pending before the high court by virtue of an appeal by the garage men from a Lancaster county District court decision dismissing their action. Garage men who brought the suit are: Wilber F. Beisner, Pawnee City; G. H. Kroese, Humboldt; H. B. Kaley and Frank Peterson, Red Cloud; and G. R. Dodds, Superior.

BIDS ON ASSETS OF TRUST, SAFE DEPOSIT FIRMS TOTAL $9,255

Highest public bids on the remaining face-value $150,000 assets of the defunct Lincoln Trust and Lincoln Safe Deposit companies totaled $9,255, A. M. Bunting, in charge of the sale, said Wednesday. The assets were offered to the public at auction at the court house Tuesday.

The First Trust Co. as successor trustee and Mark Simons, Lincoln attorney, made the two highest bids. The former bid $4,000 for part of the property and Simons $5,255 for the remainder. Included were $60,000 in real estate securities, $30,000 in judgments, and $56,000 in unsecured notes.

Bunting said he would report the results of the sale to D. H. McClenahan, referee in bankruptcy, for approval. If it receives court confirmation, he added, affairs of the two companies will be practically wound up.

U. S. Must Solve Its National Ills

Happiness Of Individual Will Follow, P. T. A. Speaker Says

OMAHA, May 8 — (AP)— Americans must solve their problems as a nation before they can be happy as individuals, G. L. Maxwell, assistant secretary of the educational policies commission, told the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Wednesday.

"If people are pursued by fears of unemployment and poverty," he asserted, "they are not likely to go far in pursuing happiness. These problems which relentlessly plague us as a nation—unemployment and povelty in the midst of plenty, ill health and ignorance in the midst of knowledge, and war—these problems are not going to solve themselves.

"In the long run they wil be solved, for better or for worse, by the collective actions of the citizens of the nation. That is, unless we get tired of trying to solve them by democratic methods and turn over the job to a dictator.

"So in the end, the achievement of happiness and effective citizenship are rather closely bound up with one another."

Street Dept. To Haul Away "Slain Dandelion" Weeds

The co-operation of the city street department was enlisted in the "war on dandelions" this week, sponsored by the womans' division of the chamber of commerce. A. Lynn Myers, superintendent of streets, has agreed that if the dandelions are placed in a pile near the curbs, city trucks will haul them away. Under no circumstances, he added, must they be thrown into the gutters to be washed away by rains, since weeds of any kind tend to obstruct the sewers.

Where dandelions are dug on the school grounds, notice should be sent to R. H. Park, assistant superintendent of schools, who will make arrangements for their disposal.

Jackson Drive Is Proud.

Reports that a large number of the yellow pests have been eliminated are reaching the chamber. Families along Jackson drive boast there is not a dandelion in the four blocks between Twenty-seventh and Thirty-first streets. In fact, according to Lloyd Burt, there has been scarcely a dandelion there for four years.

That record is offered to the rest of the community as a challenge, Miss Ione Downes, chairman of the highway committee which is in charge of the campaign, said.

Vorhees Invokes Unused Sections Of Building Code

Sections of the municipal building code adopted in 1933, but never enforced were being called to life by Building Inspector E. A. Vorhees Wednesday. They have to do with inspections.

According to the code there must be three inspections on each new building for which a permit is issued. The first is after the trenches are excavated, but before the running of concrete. The next is after all framing, fireblocking and backing is in place. The last is made after the building is completed and ready for occupancy.

In all cases, Vorhees said, the permit-holder or the contractor must notify the inspector's office that the work is ready for inspection. After the final inspection a certificate of occupancy must be received from the building permit office before it can be occupied.

These requirements of the code are being made effective because of the large number of inspections that are required as a result of heavy building operations. Only through enforcing the law can the inspectors "begin to keep apace with the work," he said.

Court Advances Date To Hear Omaha Case

Complying with a request from the city of Omaha and the Yant Construction Co., the Supreme court Wednesday advanced for hearing at its June 3 session the company's appeal from a Douglas county District court order enjoining construction of a $615,111 sewage disposal plant.

Unless the case is heard and decided soon, the city pointed out, a grant of $302,000 in WPA funds will expire. The injunction was won by Frank C. Best, Omaha taxpayer, who alleged the bidding on the construction was not properly open to competition.

$13,000 Seepage Verdict Appealed By Loup Project

The Loup River public power district appealed to the Supreme court Wednesday from a $13,000 judgment Otto Heiden, Platte county farmer, won against it for seepage damage to his lands near Lake Babcock. The district maintains the judgment is excessive.

Nazis Got 24 New U.S. Warplanes

. . . Won Easily In Norway

OSTERSUND, Sweden, May 8—(AP)—German fliers systematically "hunted Norwegian planes like rabbits" and captured 24 new undamaged United States-built Curtiss pursuit ships at one field during the conquest of Norway, a 23-year-old Norwegian flying lieutenant asserted today.

"The nazis drove British fighting planes out of Norway in a week," he said, "destroying 20 grounded planes in a single attack."

"I was stationed at our military air field just outside Oslo when the war started," he said. "We had just received 24 Curtiss Hawks and 75 pursuit planes from the United States, and eight of them were ready for flight, eight others were nearly ready, and the remaining eight were partly assembled.

"All the Curtiss planes were standing on the field when we received news of the German attack. Before one could be taken aloft, the German fliers appeared, bombing the field and factory but carefully avoiding hitting the Curtiss ships until their ground forces managed to capture all the planes undamaged."

He escaped from the field and joined a small Norwegian fighting squadron of 18 planes in the mountains north of Oslo.

"But the Germans systematically combed the mountains for our hiding places, then brought bombers to attack," he related.

British attempts to use Norwegian flying bases for their own fighting planes lasted only a week, he declared.

After managing minor league clubs for several years, he returned to the big leagues, joining Pittsburgh in 1917.

Norwegian King Hints Important New Help Planned

STOCKHOLM, May 8—(AP)—King Haakon VII of Norway, a fugitive from the German invaders of his country, has proclaimed his government's determination "to hold out until our country is free again."

He hinted that important new help is expected.

A statement, dated "somewhere in Norway" and released last night through the Norwegian news bureau, said in part:

"In northern Norway we still are holding strong positions. With the help now planned, we will succeed in retaining other parts of the country.

"The superiority of the enemy in numbers and technically on land and in the air has forced our retreat.

"We have reason to believe that this soon will be changed. Our morale unbroken, I and my government have decided to hold out until our country is free again."

Aid Costs Are Up In County ... DURING APRIL

Assistance expenditures during April exceeded those of a year ago by more than $7,000, the monthly statement issued by the Lancaster relief bureau revealed.

In April, 1940, $27,729.40 was spent on a caseload of 1,703, and in April a year ago, $20,600.70. March, 1940, disbursements totaled $32,339.48.

Administration expense was $3,052.14, compared to the $1,433.64 of April last year. In addition $1,054.06 was contributed to the expense of state assistance administration. Last month $1,321.93 was contributed in this category and last year $690.54.

Total expenditures included $16,539 for food, $2,018.64 for rent and $2,077.79 to county-sponsored relief projects.

Of the $21,545.50 spent on direct relief. $15,034.47 went to employables and $6,511.03 to non-employables. Salaries for administration of the program totaled $2,571.60 and $135.10 was spent on mileage.

Caseload Breakdown.

Total cost of administering the assistance program was $2,689.82, of which the state and federal governments contributed $1,635,-76. In addition, $1,161 was paid by the state for certification division salaries.

Caseload breakdown on May 1 showed 1,369 cases and 3,943 persons actually receiving relief. Of the totals, 914 cases and 3,084 persons were employables. A total of 1,857 cases were handled during the month, 202 were added and 154 closed. Among the reasons for adding cases were dismissal from WPA, 84; unemployment, 34; supplement to WPA, 13; insufficient income, 10; and illness, 10. Seventy-one of the closed cases went on WPA and 19 into private employment.

Average direct relief per case was $15.74 and per person, $5.46. This compares with $18.15 per case and $6.14 per person in March.

Norris Says G-Man Hoover Is Biggest U.S. Publicity Hound

WASHINGTON, May 8—(AP)—Criticizing J. Edgar Hoover as "the greatest publicity hound on the American continent," Senator Norris (Ind-Neb) told the senate Tuesday that police methods used by the FBI were a menace to democratic institutions.

"Hoover has an organization maintained at public expense, writing speeches for him to make," he said. "Copies are sent to practically every newspaper in the United States."

The aim, he said was to create a "furor of adulation and omnipotence." Such a system, he added, eventually will find the secret police "directing the government by tyrannical force instead of protecting the people."

The bitter attack culminated a speech of four and one half hours in which Norris protested methods he said were used by the FBI in arresting a dozen Detroit persons accused of recruiting for the Spanish loyalist army.

Operator Of Nursing Home Has Complaint

Tells County Board That Case Workers Are Discriminating Against Her Place

The Lancaster county board referred to the relief bureau Tuesday a complaint by Mrs. Anna Hendrix that she has been discriminated against in the operation of her nursing home at 3311 N street.

Through her attorney, L. R. Doyle, she protested that she "has been informed and has reason to believe that Mrs. Margery Worth, case work supervisor, and Miss Johnson, county nurse, have been using their influence to prevent patients from having the advantages of the Hendrix home."

Her letter was ordered turned over to E. C. Bigger, relief director, with a request that he investigate and report to the board.

Mrs. Hendrix said she does not expect favors from county officials but does feel she should be treated "equally with all others."

Among other business, the board refused to rehire Harold Hulfish as special deputy sheriff, despite Mitchell's request that it do so.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

By Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen

WASHINGTON—Madame Secretary Perkins is about to lose her ablest assistant secretary, Marshall E. Dimock—another casualty in the long list of executives who have come and gone inside the labor department.

Dimock has done an excellent job as assistant secretary of labor, but Miss Perkins will not be sorry to see him go. If anything, she has encouraged his departure.

Reason is that Miss Perkins has some rather definite ideas about marriage and divorce. And Dimock is now in the process of getting a divorce from his wife, while simultaneously his former secretary is getting a divorce from her husband.

Dimock's former secretary is Mrs. Warren Jay Vinton, whose husband is chief economist for the U. S. Housing Authority. She filed for a divorce in Reno on April 23, and it is now reported that Dimock and Mrs. Vinton will be married.

So Miss Perkins has given her blessing to the exit of her assistant secretary, who will now return to teaching at the University of Chicago.

Russia Refuses.

One of the big questions which Mussolini and Hitler discussed at their famous meeting at the Brenner Pass was a new deal by which the Soviet was to enter the Axis.

Hitherto, Communist Russia and Catholic Italy had wasted no love. However, Nazi Foreign Minister von Ribbentrop reported to Mussolini on his trip to Rome that he would have no trouble bringing Russia into the fold. All he had to do, Ribbentrop intimated, was more or less to snap his fingers and Stalin would obey.

Since that time, Ribbentrop may have snapped his fingers, but he has had no luck with Stalin. So far, Russia has not come into the Axis, and there has been no pact whatsoever, regarding the Balkans.

In fact, Italy and Russia are just as far apart as ever. It is more than probable that if Mussolini goes into the Balkans, Russia will move immediately to take Rumania and the coast of the Black Sea.

In a city which thrives on feuds, probably the bitterest enemies today remain labor leaders John L. Lewis and William Green. How bitterly they hate was illustrated when Eugene Casey, head of the local Roosevelt Memorial Library committee, called upon Green to ask for an AFL contribution toward building the library.

Mr. Green imediately asked: "How much did John L. Lewis and the CIO contribute?"

"Mr. Green," replied Casey a little sadly, "Mr. Lewis wouldn't contribute a cent."

Bill Green brightened perceptibly, called his secretary and wrote a check for $500.

"Sorry we can't do more," he said, handing the check to Casey. "It's a very worthy cause."

Bread, Not Books.

Ranking very close to Bill Green in the bitter eyes of John L. Lewis, however, is Franklin D. Roosevelt. This also was illustrated by the aforementioned Eugene Casey when he called earlier on Lewis, to ask him for funds to build the Hyde Park library.

Mr. Lewis listened graciously, then growled "What this country needs is not libraries but bread."

Casey retorted: "Mr. Lewis, if it had not been for libraries, American labor would not have the forthright, dynamic, fearless leader who has done more for labor than anyone else.

"Study your own background," Casey continued. "You were just a poor miner's boy. Where would you be today if it had not been for free books, free education and free libraries?"

Mr. Lewis softened somewhat, but still refused to contribute to the Roosevelt library at Hyde Park.

Army Food.

One of the great problems of General Maxime Weygand's Allied army in Syria, now being watched by the world, is cooking.

The cooking has to be done according to religion, and there are three great religious groups within the Allied army, plus many sects, all fanatical over their food.

For instance, the Indian troops will not permit a cow to be killed in their presence, would mutiny if they were offered a cow or steer as food.

On the other hand, the Mohammedans from Algiers, Morocco and Tunis eat beef, but will not touch pork.

Meanwhile, the Australians are not happy if they do not have ham and eggs for breakfast.

Some of the high caste Hindus in the British Indian regiments will not even permit the shadow of an infidel (a Mohammedan or Christian) to fall across their food while it is cooking.

Admiral Byrd's Penguins.

Oddest deadlock in congress today is over the question whether a quarter of a million dollars shall be sent to the Antarctic to keep Admiral Richard E. Byrd at the South Pole.

"Penguin Relief" is the nickname given this appropriation, and at least one congressman threatens to keep congress in session all summer until this question is ironed out. Leaders of the fight over "Penguin Relief" are:

Senator Glass of Virginia, a staunch fighter for economy, but in this case a believer in spending money on the Antarctic. His colleague from Virginia, Senator Harry Byrd, is the brother of Admiral Byrd.

Representative Jed Johnson of Oklahoma, who believes in government spending, but in this case is dead opposed.

"Congress is not going to appropriate any more money for Admiral Byrd," says Johnson. "I have no objection to the admiral making radio, advertising, and other kinds of contracts while he is on a personal expedition.

"But when the government subsidizes a project of this magnitude, it is no longer a private matter . . . Furthermore, I doubt whether the land around the South Pole is worth the trip to investigate."

Last year, Senator Glass pushed the Byrd appropriation through the senate, but could not at first pass it in the house. Congressman Johnson blocked him. Now the same situation repeats itself, and Senator Glass still is yelling for money to keep Admiral Byrd at the pole, while Congressman Johnson is threatening to hold up congressional adjournment until the senate tries to force the house into action.

MEAT INSPECTION FEE SUIT TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

District Judge Chappell took under submission after concluding arguments the Lincoln Packing Co.'s effort to trim a city ordinance levying meat inspection fees for allegedly being a revenue measure.

The company sought to prove that inspection before the ordinance became effective in 1935 was similar to that after and that the increased fees exceeded the cost. It endeavored to show that the same inspection was given cattle as hogs despite the 5 cents difference in fee. Cattle were inspected for 15 cents and hogs for 10.

Fighting the action, the city admitted that at times the fees have been more than the cost of inspection, but that at other times the cost has exceeded the revenue. The average collections have been nearly equal to the cost, it contended.

What to do when the bug bites you!

FIGURES show that about one out of every five able-to-purchase new-car buyers really wants a Buick more than any other car.

Not all will buy one.

Too many of them without even getting actual figures will shake their heads and sigh, "Nope! A car that big and handsome must be out of my reach!"

You'll be smarter than that, we know.

When the bug to own a Buick bites you, you'll figure that a car as talked-about as Buick must be looked at first—if you're going to have anything to go on in judging 1940 values.

"Let me have a good look at that car that's showing the rest of 'em what modern style is.

"Let me try out that big straight-eight engine that's electrically balanced after assembly for smoothness to match a wrist watch's works.

"Show me those big soft coil springs you talk about and how they smooth out that rough stretch down the street—and what's the business about recoil-mounted Knee-Action, heaviest frames at the price, five-foot front seat room in SUPER models, and six dozen new 1940 features?"

When you've got the answers through a good long ride—ask one more question: "How much?"

F. D. R. Slate Makes Sweep In California

. . . Garner Ticket Swamped

Vice President Wins Bulk Of Delegates Named to Texas State Convention; Alabama Backs Bankhead

(By the Associated Press.)

Roosevelt third term supporters added the big California delegation to their growing forces today as a result of a democratic primary sweep.

A national convention slate pledged to the president defeated a Garner ticket 6 to 1, and held nearly a 3 to 1 majority over the combined vote for Garner and two uninstructed tickets.

While the Roosevelt candidates were carrying virtually every California county, Vice President Garner won the vast bulk of the delegates chosen for the Texas state democratic convention and Speaker Bankhead (D-Ala) was given favorite son support by the 22 national delegates elected in Alabama.

Election Activity in Six States.

These developments highlighted election activity yesterday in six states. Only one senatorial race was involved. Senator Charles Andrews of Florida led for democratic renomination, but apparently will be forced into a run-off primary against Bernarr MacFadden, magazine publisher and new deal critic.

Despite the one-sided Roosevelt victory in California, two Garner delegates may be among the 44 going to the Chicago convention. There were two vacancies on the third term slate, and election officials said that the two highest candidates on the next ticket—the Garner one—would be designated to fill them.

Pension Slate Third.

Running third was an uninstructed "ham and eggs" pension delegation, and fourth was a so-called liberal-left wing group headed by Lieut. Gov Ellis Patterson, who had bolted the Roosevelt slate of Gov. Culbert L. Olson.

Returns from 11,764 precincts out of 13,511 in the California primary gave:

Democrats: Roosevelt 638,572; Allen, 78,395; Garner, 96,102; Patterson, 43,991.

Republican—(11,609 precincts) Seawell, 470,243.

Texans Back Demo Regime.

In Texas, Garner headquarters said he had won 653 delegates chosen in county conventions against 32 for the president. Nearly every county convention, however, endorsed the Roosevelt administration and many delegates to the state meeting were pledged not to aid any "stop Roosevelt" movement.

Gov. Harlan Bushfield won republican renomination in the South Dakota primary, and will be opposed by Lewis Bicknell, democrat. Indiana voters apparently renominated the state's congressional delegation.

Democrats elected uninstructed delegations to the national conventions in Florida and South Dakota, while an uninstructed republican slate was chosen without opposition in California.

Total of Delegates.

Altogether the democrats elected 88 and the republicans 52 national convention delegates yesterday to bring their respective totals to 480 and 586. The democratic convention will have 1,094 votes and the republican 1,000.

About three-fourths of the democratic delegates already chosen are pledged to President Roosevelt or have shown favoritism for him. Postmaster General Farley has 38½, while three in Wisconsin are pledged to Garner. The remainder are uninstructed.

Most of the republican delegates chosen are uninstructed. Thomas E. Dewey of New York has 96 pledged or semi-pledged votes, and Senator Robert Taft of Ohio has two pledged votes so far.

Six Groups Present Fine Offerings At Music Night

250 Enjoy Program Given At Lincoln C. of C. Observance

Lincoln's contribution to the celebration of National Music week (May 5 to 12) was provided by the chamber of commerce Tuesday night in a music festival in which six groups, representative of various phases of the city's musical activity, participated.

The Lincoln Symphony opened the program. Leo Kucinski again proved his excellence as a conductor in the following numbers from the group's repertoire of the past season: Sibelius, Valse Triste; Strauss, Perpetual Motion; Schubert, Marche Militaire.

The Nebraska Wesleyan a cappella chorus furnished another high spot in the entertainment. Ably directed by Oscar Bennett, Foster's "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" and Russian chant, "Hospodi Pomilui" of Lvovsky were especially favored by the audience.

Others of their selections were "Salvation is Created," by Tschesnikov; "The Creation," by Richter; and "In These Delightful, Pleasant Groves," by Henry Purcell.

Artistic Trio

The Universtiy of Nebraska school of music presented a highly artistic trio of faculty members—Herbert Schmidt, piano; Don Lentz, flute; and Emanuel Wishnow, violin. Their offerings were a suite by Cesar Cui and Rabaud's "Andante and Scherzo."

The only soloist during the program was a young flutist, Marvin Koch, from the seventh grade at Everett junior high. Presented by Lyle Welch, he played "Song of India," by Rimsky-Korsakov, and "Titania's Wedding March," by Maganini. Willard Robb was his accompanist.

Welch, who is a director of instrumental music in the public schools, also presented a clarinet quartet from Jackson high school which played a "Country Dance" of Krenek. Members of the group are William Schulz, Richard Lanning, Duane Deal, and Ted Schartz.

Woodwind Group

Bernard F. Nevin, director of the Lincoln high school orchestra, introduced members of a woodwind quintet which was honored last year at the state high school music contest. Their offering was "Sonatino," by Buckborough.

Members are Julia Ann Morse, oboe; Charles Purviance, clarinet; Carol Lea Anderson, flute; Scott Irwin, French horn; and Richard Wakeham, bassoon.

The Lincoln high school girls' octette, directed by Miss Helen Stowell, gave a group of songs which greatly delighted their hearers. Accompanied by Josephine Waddell, the ensemble is composed of Elsine Lebsock, Eloise Camp, Margaret Capron, Mary Lou Lebsock, Dorothy Strasheim, Maurine Mertz, Dorothy Huffman, and Ruth Stratton.

Their offerings were: Thomas Morley, My Bonny Lass; Palestrina, O Bone Jesu; Rachmaninov, Lilacs; Charles, Clouds; Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, The Year's at the Spring.

Frank Cunkle of the University School of Music faculty played organ music for the dinner, which was attended by 250. Toastmaster for the evening was Herbert F. McCulla.

Those seated at the speakers' table included Mr. Kucinski, Mr. Bennett, Chancellor C. S. Boucher of the University of Nebraska, Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook, head of the university fine arts department, President A. H. Rulkoetter of Union college, Supt. M. C. Lefler of the city schools, Mrs. Ruth Gavin, Miss Alice von Bergen, president of the chamber women's division, and Otto Schlaebitz, chairman of the chamber public affairs committee which arranged the program.

Germans Jeer British Talks

. . . On Norway Campaign

BERLIN, May 8—(AP)—The house of commons speech by Prime Minister Chamberlain yesterday and the address of Gen. Sir Edmund Ironside, chief of the imperial defense staff, to British troops returning to Britain from the Norweigian campaign evoked jeering comment today from German official quarters.

(Chamberlain said that allied withdrawal was effected without the loss of a man. Ironside congratulated the men on coming back "with your tails up" and told them they were not driven out but ordered out.)

"If England suffered no losses then why did she find it necessary to withdraw?" authorized sources asked.

These sources commented on what they called England's "new definition of heroism."

"Apparently a premium is put on the speed with which English troops can run away from the Germans," they commented. "Then on their arrival in their homeland they are told undying fame attaches to their achievement."

Glick Talks On Social Work In Rural Field

Best Personnel None Too Good For Small Local Units, He Tells Red Cross

There is no such thing as a rural social worker any more than there is a rural doctor or rural lawyer, as far as his course of training is concerned, Dr. Frank Glick, director of the University of Nebraska Graduate School of Social Work, told American Red Cross workers at their annual national convention in Washington, D. C., Wednesday.

Speaking on "Social Work in Rural Communities," the university educator declared that "we are rapidly reaching the sound consensus that rural social work boils down to a matter of orientation of our professional practice to the characteristic features of rural life. It is a matter of adapting and improving the skills we have—not of developing basically new ones.

"If anything is clear about the social work job in our small local units, it is that the best personnel is none too good for the job that needs doing there," Dr. Glick said. "The social worker who will be most successful in a rural community is the one who has the fullest and best professional preparation."

Dr. Glick gave the five characteristics of rural social work as pioneering, the closeness to the local community, working with limited resources, the handicap of distance, and the varied responsibility involved.

Public social work, administered by a trained professional personnel, will come to be accepted, like public education and public health, as a necessary and proper function of democratic government, Dr. Glick predicted. Social service as a permanent and expensive public function is new and strange in rural America, although rural areas have been acquainted with social work in the form of mothers' pension programs and activities of private agencies, Dr. Glick stated.

"The folks along main street and out on rural free delivery had not seen this kind of business before and were not at all sure that they liked it," he remarked. "They are not sure yet but they are learning."

BLUE RIBBON GOES TO BRANDEIS HORSE

KANSAS CITY, May 8—(AP)—Gay Divorcee, a brown mare owned by George Brandeis of Omaha, won the blue ribbon for five-gaited saddle mares at the sportsmen's horse show last night. Royal Fascination of the Northwoods Farms, Fort Worth, Tex., was second.

In the light hunter class, Master Johnny, owned by Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Justice, Ill., won first place.

Special Exhibit Is Arranged at Burroughs

Prentice Invites Public See Modern Machines At Newly Enlarged Quarters

A special exhibit of calculating and forms-writing machines will be open to the public at the enlarged Burroughs Adding Machine Co. offices at 323 South Twelfth street Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 10 p. m.

Fred C. Prentice, branch manager, extended an open invitation to the business public to see the machines, representative of the 400 models this company manufactures.

Included in the exhibit will be an electric duplex calculator that "remembers" totals; a calculator requiring less desk space than a letterhead, yet capable of doing complex figure work; a fanfold biller which writes unit tickets as a by-product; and a payroll machine that prepares four records at one writing.

Katherine Rothe Is Bruised In Accident

Katherine Rothe, 1129 North Thirty-seventh street, suffered bruises on the leg in an automobile accident between Sixteenth and Seventeenth on O street late Tuesday afternoon. The injury was not considered serious.

Police said she was riding in the front seat of a car driven by Mrs. C. D. Bishop, 50, of Pleasant Dale, which was backing from a curb. Officers said it collided with the westbound car driven by Edna Stullken, 23, 1347 North Thirty-eighth street. The Stullken machine nearly overturned.

Huskers, K-Aggies Splash Mud, Water On Stadium Cinders

Weirmen Glean Edge Of Two Points Over Haylett Squad.

By DON KELLOGG.

THERE possibly will never be another track and field meet like the one the Kansas State Aggies and the Nebraska Cornhuskers participated in over the water-covered cinder oval at Memorial stadium late Tuesday afternoon.

Plenty Water; Plenty Mud.

In fact, it could have hardly been called a meet at all. Coach Ward Haylett's Kansas State squad finally arrived on the scene after the proposed meet had been twice postponed and then mid-afternoon rains forced abandonment of the low hurdles race, sent the high jump, broad jump and pole vault indoors and mud-splattered the runners who did have a part in the proceedings.

The score? Well, there were several schools of scorers for this alleged meeting. Giving Kansas State the doubt in every instance, Coach Weir's Nebraska Huskers still had a 62 to 60 margin over their opponents.

Regardless of conditions, Sophomore Harold Brooks started his part of the water carnival by running the mile in 4:22.8. It was his best time outdoors and is only off the Nebraska school mark by sixteenths of a second. Brooks dropped out of the half-mile when he stumbled on the curve and bruised a heel.

Redhead Gets Going.

Then Eugene "Red" Littler, the streamliner himself, sought his turn to churn through the limpid pools placed here, there and everywhere on the cinder track.

It was rare sport to watch the red-head go to work in the quarter mile, his first race. Streaking along with only one thought—that of winning—Littler spurted at several different intervals just when a purple shirt was about to go by him and, of course, romped home first. He repeated the performance in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

But it took husky Footballer Bob Kahler to provide the most pleasant surprise, right along with a fellow named Edsel Wibbels.

Kahler Wins High Jump.

On the inside where nobody got a glimpse of him, Kahler hoisted himself over the high jump bar at even six feet. That was hardly expected, let alone him winning the event.

Wibbels came along in the last event to spike a few rumors that he was not a good competitor. With his unorthodox form, he cast the javelin out nearly 196 feet to cop the blue ribbon and leave no doubt in the minds of the visitors and their coach as to which team actually had the largest score—whether or not it meant anything.

The mix-up in points came in the first instance when the Kansas State shot-putters insisted that Wibbels had been allowed an extra throw in the finals. His eighth throw of the day, counting his preliminary tosses, saw him putting the iron ball out 47-7¾ to displace Vanderbilt as the second place winner.

Another controversy arose when Referee and Starter Herb Gish ruled that both Kansas State and Nebraska should be disqualified in the mile relay as both sets of baton-exchangers had failed to pass in the customary distance allowed them.

Doubt Benefit to Aggies.

Giving Kansas State the benefit of doubt in both cases, the Huskers still won the meet by a two-point margin.

Maynard Swartz and Herb Grote did not compete for the Cornhuskers in the javelin throw and Lloyd Wright, the sprinter, was withheld from action because of the track's condition.

Probably the only things that might be said in favor of the battle in and against the elements are that the athletes in both squads received a good and final priming for the Big Six finale, scheduled for next week-end, and that both schools were fortunate in having no runners pull up with serious injuries that easily might have prevailed due to the adverse conditions. The results:

MEDAL TO DEBUS AS STUDENT ATHLETE

Howard Debus, Lincoln high's all-around athlete, was awarded the Harry Sidney Dobbins medal Wednesday morning at the annual spring senior class assembly. The medal annually is given to the student who most effectively combines athletics, scholarship and gentlemanly conduct. Rev. R. A. McConnell presented the medal.

HOWARD DEBUS.

Debus earned recognition on The Star and Journal state football honor roll for three years, lettered once on the basketball team, is working for his third letter in track and is conceded to be the state's top prep performer this spring.

DIZZY OUT AS CUBS REGULAR

Dean Demoted and Rookie Takes His Place As Starting Hurler

CHICAGO, May 8—(AP)—Dizzy Dean is more than a little bit irked at reports that he would quit the Chicago Cubs because he's lost his status as a starting pitcher.

The new No. 4 starter on Manager Gabby Hartnett's mound staff is young Ken Raffensberger, who is scheduled to open the series with Brooklyn today.

Swallows His Demotion.

"I've never been a quitter and I won't quit now," said Dizzy, who has been knocked out of the box three times. In his fourth start, he tossed a five hitter against Cincinnati.

"I don't know where such rumors start," Dean added. "I'm going to keep on working as hard as I can and helping the Cubs in every way I can."

The indications now are that Dean, demoted from a starting role, would be called upon to work as a relief pitcher. Hartnett and his boss, Owner Phil Wrigley, are awaiting developments before making any rash moves in the Dean case.

Yankees Skid To Cellar

Sioux City Interested In New League

SUGGESTION given publicity a few weeks ago in this column that the Western league's withdrawal from the Lincoln territory should give impetus to talk of organizing a new and stronger circuit, apparently is spreading throughout this portion of the trans-Missouri region.

Des Moines sentiment seemingly is favorable, Omaha is giving evidence of its interest by talking up a municipal stadium project and now comes Sioux City to indicate a desire to pull away from the class D Western and throw in with a more important league.

As proof of what is going on in Sioux City minds, this column is in receipt of a communication penned by an official of the Sioux City club, from which I here quote:

Writes To Sound Out Lincoln

"AS YOU perhaps know, Sioux City operates in baseball successfully as an independent club year in and out, without major league support, and in any kind of baseball from A to D league rating.

"We are wondering at this time if you would care to indicate to us just what would be the possibility of Lincoln entertaining any definite ideas of going into a class A or B league, either independently as a civic proposition, such as Sioux City, as a private enterprise by a financially qualified operator or through major league affiliation.

"Sioux City is ready to go. We understand Des Moines is in a receptive mood and recently our people have had letters from Omaha indicating they may build a stadium there and return to organized baseball.

Sentiment Locally Is Favorable

"AS TO the truth of the latter statement, we do not know. However, we feel that the time is ripe to revive baseball and launch a good league in this section of the country, as there is only one class A league operating in the United States, that being the Eastern league.

"Would you please write me at your earliest convenience, outlining the Lincoln situation and making any suggestions you may have in mind on the subject of this proposed new league."

To the above request, the writer is taking it upon himself to inform the Sioux City club authorities that Lincoln properly can be viewed as a candidate for membership in the proposed baseball circuit.

Certain details of vital importance, of course, would have to be worked out, but Lincoln fandom, as a whole, has been washed up for years on the class D league scheme and surely would be receptive to any plan which might make it possible to fall in with a class A or B league project.

Fairweather Ready To Take Action

FOR the special information of Lincoln fans, this column is in position to proclaim that Tom Fairweather of Des Moines, president of the Western association and Three-Eye league, is now working on definite plans aimed at reviving organized ball in this section of the middle-west.

Although not fully acquainted with all the details, I happen to know that Des Moines, Sioux City, Omaha and Lincoln are four of the cities Prexy Fairweather has in mind as a nucleus for a new circuit. Davenport, Ia., too, is under consideration, as are Denver and Pueblo.

All this the writer can say advisedly, inasmuch as he has been in communication recently with Mr. Fairweather and the latter made open admission that he intends to get on the organizing job at an early date.

Gossip published at Omaha a few days ago in connection with the stadium project intimated that the Nebraska metropolis still is gnawing at an old bone, i. e., it aspires to gain admission to the American association, a double-A league.

Concerning Omaha's ambition, one may be sure that the AA circuit is not in the least interested. In fact, it has so declared its attitude on several occasions, wherefore it's a new league or nothing for the Nebraska metropolis.

FUMBLE HABIT GRIPS EXPERTS

Fight Prophets Hesitate Name the Winner of Friday Fray.

By LAWTON CARVER.

NEW YORK, May 8—(INS)—Jim Braddock beat Max Baer, Max Schmeling knocked out Joe Louis, Nathan Mann quit so early in the fight that Buddy Baer didn't have a chance to exercise his proclivities for this specialty, and Gallahadion beat Bimelech (Oh me, Oh my!) in the Kentucky derby. In the light of all that, whom do you like then in Friday night's fight between Lou Ambers and Lew Jenkins? Yes, yes, of course. Ambers will successfully retain his lightweight championship by cutting Jenkins to pieces.

Sure Things Go Wrong.

Braddock and Schmeling, with their old joints creaking, were going to be belted out into row Z, or thereabouts, like a couple of outfield flies, by Baer and Louis, respectively. Buddy Baer, who only a few days before he met Mann last week was shellacked in his training camp by a novice, certainly would quit as soon as Mann began to smack him around a little. As for Bimelech, he was a cinch to run away from the derby field and hide, as they say.

We only mention the foregoing as a few outstanding samples of what can and sometimes does happen in this dizzy sports business. There are so many more that you wonder if there actually is much sense in attempting to name a winner.

It's Very Baffling.

It is all a little baffling, for after laboriously explaining how Louis would knock Schmeling out the first time, only to see the thing go the other way, you then explain how Schmeling will repeat in their second fight. Instead, he was nearly killed in suffering one of the fastest and most brutal knockouts in ring annals.

Hence, we are not going to be surprised at anything that may happen Friday night, despite betting odds of two to one and better on Ambers.

Outstanding characteristics of the principals may be summed up as follows:

The Battlers Compared.

AMBERS—Not a great champion, but a very good one; tough, thoroughly game, fast, and punching better than ever; floored by Jimmy McLarnin and Tony Canzoneri, memorable for their hitting ability, he got up and fought like a whole pen full of wildcats, and has never been knocked out; won the lightweight title from Canzoneri in 1936, lost it to Henry Armstrong in 1938 and regained it from Armstrong last year; generally leaves his opponents well cut up, due to his vicious infighting.

JENKINS—A crude workman from Sweetwater, Tex., who started fighting when he was a cavalryman along the Rio Grande; only a fair boxer, but one of the hardest hitters in the game today; has stiffened his last six opponents in fights here, and completely confident he will make it seven in a row with Ambers, despite a tendency to cut easily and bleed freely around the eyes.

You go ahead, now, and pick the winner.

Western Leaguers Due Start Thursday

SIOUX CITY, Ia., May 8—(AP)—The class D Western league, cut from last year's six to four teams, will open its 120-game season Thursday night here and at Sioux Falls. The Sioux City Cowboys will entertain Norfolk and the Canaries will be hosts to Worthington.

Two new managers are in the league—Bob Fenner, former American association catcher, being at the helm of the Canaries, and George Payne, one-time Chicago White Sox pitcher, heading the Worthington club. Jimmy Zinn continues as the pilot here and E. S. "Doc" Bennett remains at Norfolk.

The league will play a split season, with the winners of each half meeting for the championship. Last year, Norfolk finished on top in the regular season and Sioux City won the Shaughnessy system play-off.

Both the Sioux City and Sioux Falls clubs are independent, but the Norfolk team is part of the New York Yankees' farm system and Worthington is a member of the St. Louis Cardinals' "chain."

Champs Bowled Over Again By Bengals And Now Stand Tied With Chicago Hose.

By PAT ROBINSON.

NEW YORK, May 8—(INS)—If anyone had suggested a month ago that this date would find the Yankees lodged in the American league cellar, he would have been rushed to the nearest psychiatrist to have his head examined. But there they are, and unless the four-time world champions start hitting pretty soon, there they will remain. Even the belated return of Jolting Joe DiMaggio couldn't help them yesterday, as they dropped their fourth straight game, the Tigers beating them, 4 to 2.

Balked By Tiger Rookie.

Hal Newhouser, an 18-year-old Rookie, stood the champs on their collective ears and gave further evidence that the Yanks have trouble with left-handers. Newhouser is the thirteenth southpaw to face the Yanks this season and the eighth to beat them.

Of course, the Yanks are too strong to remain buried for long, but until they quit pressing, as they are now, and start hitting, they are going to be soft touches for any left-hander.

The Red Sox, who hold a six-game lead over the staggering champions, picked up another game yesterday by knocking off the Indians, 6-4. Grandpa Mose Grove got the decision.

White Sox Trim Athletics.

The White Sox took advantage of four errors to trim the Athletics, 6-3, and the Senators went 10 heats to down the Browns, 6 to 5, on Johnny Whitehead's wild pitch.

Frankie Frisch watched his Pirates drop their seventh straight game as they plummeted into the National league cellar. He called on almost everybody but the bat boy, but at the end the Bees were in front, 11 to 9.

The Reds pulled up to within half a game of the league-leading Dodgers by nosing out the Giants, 7 to 6. It was the fifth straight win for the Reds and the fourth straight defeat for the Giants. This was a tough one to lose.

Hank Danning the Goat.

Hank Danning, whose two homers had driven in four runs to put the Giants ahead, changed from a hero to a goat when his error paved the way for the defeat.

The Phillies, who are getting some surprisingly good pitching shut out the Cubs, 1 to 0. Pearson gave the Cubs only four hits and Passeau gave the Phils but five. The lone run of the game counted when Catcher Al Todd let a perfect third strike that would have retired the side get away from him.

And the Cardinals came to life by shellacking the Dodgers, 18 to 2. Lon Warneke became the second Card pitcher to go the route this season as his mates pounded out 20 hits off Casey and Macon, including no fewer than seven home runs.

Driver Aims Threat At Speedway Record

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8—(INS)—Rex Mays, sensational Glendale, Cal., driver, said today he hoped to establish a new official Indianapolis speedway record later this month in the qualifying trials for the famed Indianapolis 500-mile race on Memorial day.

Mays had reason to be confident, for late yesterday he flashed one lap around the track in the unofficial time of 132.40 miles per hour, faster than any driver has been clocked before on the speedway. It was estimated that on the straightaways Mays reached a speed of 164 mph.

The Californian, who set the record only a few hours after George Bailey of Detroit was burned to death when his car crashed into the wall during a tryout, drove the eight-cylinder supercharged car with which Lou Meyer, also a Californian, led most of last year's "500" before he was wrecked in the final laps.

The official track record is 130.757 miles per hour, established by the late Jimmy Snyder.

GALA WEEK IN PREP SPORTS

Three-Day Competition In State High Circles To Start Thursday.

By ALEX STODDARD.

Forty Nebraska high school baseball teams crack open activity in the state tournament Thursday in an all-day program on four fields, while the cindermen from 168 or more schools and golf and tennis athletes from about a dozen institutions go into action Friday in this, the climactic week-end of the year's prep sports competition.

Lincoln Takes On Fremont.

Four diamond teams drew first round byes—Madison and Neligh in class A and Davey and Maywood in class C. Feature games on the Thursday program are Lincoln vs. Fremont, Omaha South vs. Plattsmouth and Wisner vs. Creighton Prep in class A, Arlington vs. Papillion in class B and Millard vs. Burchard in class C.

THEO. OSSOWSKI.

Meantime, the railbirds are predicting plenty of competition in the track and field championships Friday and Saturday at Memorial stadium. Many records may be cast into the discard as the field includes all the state's top-notch competitors.

Field Records Threatened.

The field events are expected to produce most of the record-breaking activity, and the shot put event appears to be the one in which the keenest competition will develop.

Two Teams Withdraw.

Two first-round baseball defaults were announced Wednesday by Coach W. W. Knight of the University of Nebraska, director of the state prep diamond tournament. Wisner sent word it would not be on hand to meet Creighton Prep in a class A game and Johnson forfeited to Leshara in class C.

Howard Debus, Lincoln high's crack performer, has recorded a 51-10 toss in a meet and a 52-8 put in practice.

Leonard McDonald of Omaha Central is right behind with 51-2½, while Theo Ossowski of Beatrice has been measured close to 50 feet.

JERRY CARPENTER McCOOK

Debus is expected to set a new record in the discus, his pet event, but he won't get much opposition. Debus' best mark of 174-2½ is more than 20 feet better than his own state record and about 30 feet ahead of his closest rivals this spring. McDonald and Randall Butterbaugh of Fairbury probably will battle it out for second.

Debus Tops In Javelin.

Debus also has the top javelin cast of 184 feet, but McDonald, Clint Wear of Farnam and Bob Tanner of Oxford have been around 170 feet and might upset the Lincoln ace. Jerry Carpenter, all-around McCook athlete, has good marks in all three weight events and will be one of the busiest competitors of the two-day meet, entering the sprints in addition to the shot, discus and javelin.

BOB TANNER OXFORD

Harold McAferty of Gothenburg has high jumped 6-5½ in pentathlon trials and is a threat to the state standard of 6-2⅛, held by a fellow townsman, Trimble, and set in 1935. Wilbur Lebsack of Lincoln has 21-6½ in the broad jump for the best leap this year, but isn't threatening Jim Mather's record, while Debus and Dick Weigand of South Sioux City, co-winners of the gold medal last year, have been going around 12 feet consistently in the pole vault this spring.

The 168 track and field entries have 32 in class A, 36 in class B, and 50 each in C and D. Two or three additional blanks were expected to reach the N. H. S. A. A. office Wednesday. Latest track, tennis and golf entries:

Track.

Class A—Beatrice, Gothenburg, Lexington, Lincoln, Sidney, South Sioux City.

Lincoln Papers Arrange Lessons Without Cost To Beginners.

Attention Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Golfer of the novice variety. Yes, even your children!

For now is the time for all good beginners to get their clubs and come out swinging!

Next Monday First Day.

Starting next Monday evening at 7 o'clock the Lincoln Newspaper golf classes are scheduled to get under way—and it's all free. All you have to do is to clip the application for golf lessons out of The Star, turn it in before the Sunday deadline and get ready to learn a few things in golf.

Ed Newkirk's driving range, directly across from the state prison on South Fourteenth street, is the site and from 7 to 8 Monday evening all those whose ages ranges from 12 to 18 may take their initial lesson. From 8:30 for another hour, a class in the seniors' division will be held.

Prizes to Eight.

But wait—that's not all. Ed Newkirk, who will supervise the instruction, will be aided by a few of Lincoln's top-notch golfers during the second and final week of lessons, and upon the shoulders of the local aces will fall the task of selecting four in each class—the juniors and the seniors—who have shown the most improvement.

Prizes will be awarded accordingly, with golf balls, golf clubs and a summer's free playing at Pioneers among the awards to try for.

Yes, it's the Lincoln Newspapers giving all this expert advice free. Just fill in the blank and turn it in at The Star office before Sunday.

Mondays and Wednesdays will be the days in each of the two weeks that this chance will be yours.

OVER THE STATE by ALEX STODDARD

TWENTY-five of the 44 teams entered in the state high school baseball tournament, starting Thursday, are new contestants... Last year's entry list of 28 was grouped entirely in one class, but this year, with teams divided on the basis of enrollment, several new teams were attracted... Wisner, Neligh, Seward and Jackson of Lincoln are class A teams ready to compete this year which weren't in attendance in 1939, while the class B newcomers are Syracuse, Cedar Bluffs, Fairmont, Osmond, Steinauer, Bethany of Lincoln, Boys Town, Utica, Wauneta, Elkhorn, Mason City and Papillion . . . Class C teams here this year which didn't compete last spring are Springfield, Davey, Garland, Leshara, Johnson, Filley, Swanton, Malcolm and Maywood.

ONLY nine of last year's 28 competitors failed to file entry blanks this year . . . In nearly every instance, the reason is that concentration has been on track during the spring season, and at least half a dozen of the schools aren't supporting baseball this year...The absentees are Hickman, Prague, West Point, Weeping Water, Curtis Aggies, Wahoo, Hallam, Eustis and Minden.

"SPECK" NELSON, Midland college athletic director and coach, is looking forward to the 1941 track season, when he hopes to arrange a special meet to culminate the state college campaign . . . It's Nelson's idea to schedule a meet at the state university's Memorial stadium in which the four place-winners in each event in the N. C. A. C. (Church college) and N. I. A. A. (Normal school) meets would compete for a state crown . . . Under his plan, no school could enter an athlete in the meet unless he previously had placed in either conference carnival and only in the events in which the boy won points in his own circuit.

HODGE-PODGE: Decision of Falls City's school board to accept or reject the WPA allotment for a new stadium there was postponed until May 15 . . . The blueprints are still in the hands of a Lincoln architectural firm and won't be available until then...Leo Black, former Columbus high coach and for several years principal of the Nebraska City senior high school, has handed in his resignation . . . Black will attend summer school and the fall term at the University of Nebraska working for a doctor's degree....Art Stegeman, crack Kearney Normal athlete, has signed as coach at Kingston, Ida., high school next year.

PLAYERS TRADED BY PIRATES, CINCY REDS

PITTSBURGH, May 8—(INS)—Outfielder Johnny Rizzo has been traded to the Cincinnati Reds for Outfielder Vince DiMaggio, the Pittsburgh Pirates ball club announced today.

Rizzo has been with the Pirates for three years, but slumped last year and has been unable to get going this season. DiMaggio, a right-hand hitter and thrower, will come directly to Ptitsburgh and go into tomorrow's lineup against the New York Giants.

Curtain Drops On Ten-Pins Carnival

DETROIT, May 8—(INS)—The 62-day-old fortieth annual American Bowling Congress tournament was a pile of records and a sporting memory today as the curtain dropped on the championships which saw the largest list of entries in the congress' history and the distribution of the $240,000 in prize money.

The singles crown went to Ray Brown, Terre Haute, Ind., who earned $300 with a 742 total, while 4,177 keglers in the solo division divided up $67,525.

Doubles Prize to Chicago.

Chicago boasted its twelfth doubles title with Herb Freitag and Joe Sinke registering a 1,346 total, which was worth $600. The extended prize list provided for 2,081 winners who split $67,280.

Fred Fischer of Buffalo, N. Y., paced the all-events field by hitting 2.001, an average of 222.3 for his nine games. There are 416 prizes in this class, with 1,775 being the low total in the money list.

The five-man title was won by the Monarchs of Chicago. This event was finished a day earlier than the regular run.

Czars of Court Sport Okay New Backboard

LAWRENCE, Kas., May 8—(AP)—The streamlined basketball backboard will make its bow next season. Dr. F. C. (Phog) Allen, Kansas university basketball coach, was notified today by H. V. Porter, secretary, that the national basketball committee had approved a modified backboard, after extensive study.

Porter said his correspondence since the national meeting indicated that many schools would use the streamlined backboard next year. The new style board has no sharp corners, all being rounded off to eliminate waste space. Such a board, Allen explained, has all the space necessary for banking the ball and, in addition, has these advantages:

Freer use of four-foot end space permits offensive play from nearly all directions and relieves congestion in lane.

Increased visibility of basket from corners and end of gymnasium.

Increased space under basket from which a goal may be made and chance for rebounder to escape from congested area.

Backboard weight reduced and less complicated support necessary.

Allen said the new boards now were legal and could be installed without fear of protest, although no school would be forced to abandon the old square boards.

'Big Train' In Race For Congress Seat

GERMANTOWN, Md., May 8—(AP)—Walter Perry Johnson, one of the greatest pitchers who ever threw a baseball, got the call today to take the mound in a congressional pennant race.

On the basis of almost complete returns in the sixth Maryland district, the "Big Train," who did 21 years of hurling for the Washington Senators, held a 1,000-vote lead for the republican nomination.

Warming up in the democratic bull pen was Rep. William D. Byron, the incumbent. The November box score will decide which will represent the district in the house of representatives.

At his modest farm home here, the habitually modest Johnson was more modest than ever.

"Gee, whiz," he said, "the folks sure have been nice about this whole thing. Even if I lost, gee whiz!

"As I see politics, it's a lot like baseball. It takes a lot of things to win and just a couple of bobbles and you're lost."
